Daddy's Little Girl

Roses are red, violets are blue, our heavenly father sent us a little girl named Pooh.

It seems like only yesterday this little girl was getting her way.

I remember before you could say "da" I was late night shopping for you a "pa"

It seems like right from the start you had a way to all of our hearts.

I will always remember the Hawaiian Hula Swirl, I knew right then and there you were Daddy's little girl.

You and I were quite a team. Together we could build almost anything. from desk to barns you were a champ.

Yes my little girl has grown up so fast, It's hard to remember your first grade class.

It seems like you've always been the athletic type. You can tell when you throw the ball with all your might.

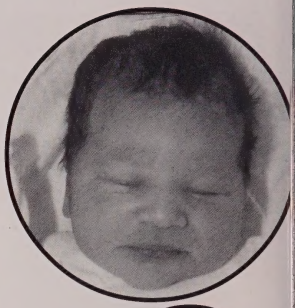
Yes you've blessed this family right from the start. Because you have such a big, big heart.

So as we take this long journey of miles, It's always been nice to see your smiles.

Yes Pooh you're growing up in front of our noses, Please remember to always smell the roses.

Love,
Your Daddy

Alesha



We love you more then anything
We just had to let you know
and if you ever wonder why,
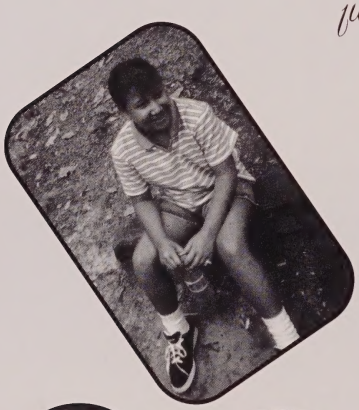
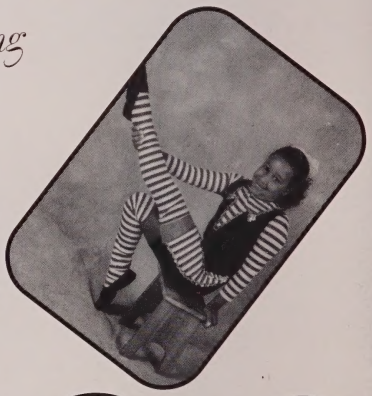
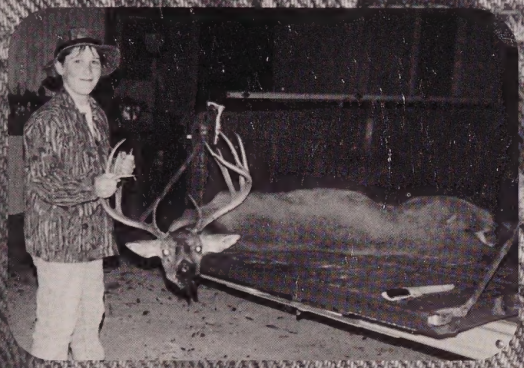
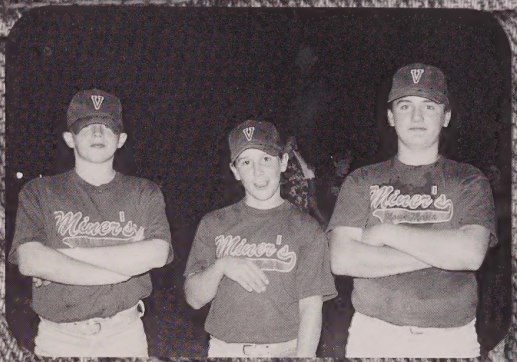
We don't know what we will say but we will not stop loving you each and every day
Our feelings for you will never change
just know our feelings are true
just remember one thing
We love you.

Grandma, Poppy,
Mom, and Dejha



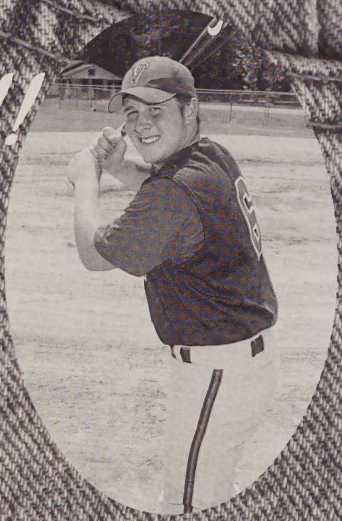


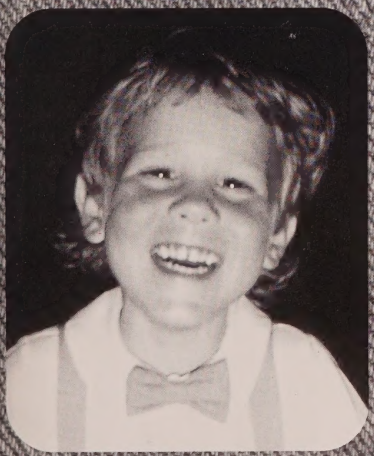


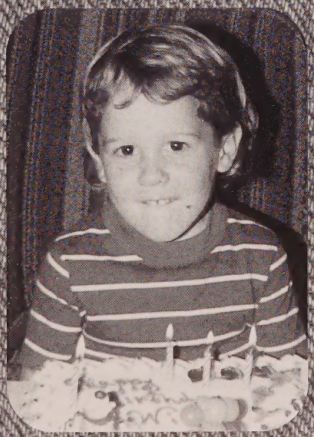


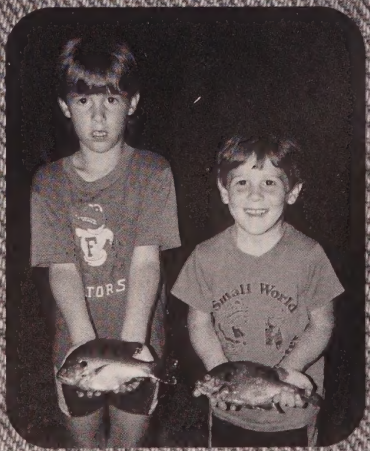
We Love You Will !!

Daddy, Mama, and Zac



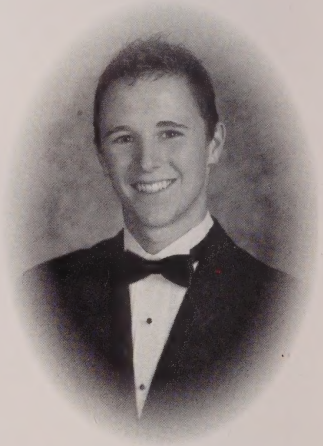






Timothy,

Whenever I think of how time has flown by it makes me sad. I can't believe my baby has grown up. I want you to know that no matter where you are, I will always be there for you. I am so lucky to have you as my son. You have always made me proud. The way you care about the people you are close to and how, even though it takes a little nudging sometimes, you always complete what you set out to do. I know your Grandma and Grandpa would be proud of the person you have become. I hope your Senior year is all you expect it to be.



We love you and wish you luck and love for your future.
